1) Note:

Courses for the Doctoral Programme (pursuant to § 4 of the curriculum)

1. Required subject:

Doctoral candidates have to complete 12 semester hours from the courses offered at the respective doctoral school in the subject/subject area of the topic of the dissertation, of which 6 to 8 semester hours have to be completed in this doctoral school's Seminar for Doctoral Candidates.

2. Elective:

4 semester hours worth of courses, which are to be chosen with their relevance to the topic of the dissertation in mind. The courses of the elective can be chosen from the subject of the respective doctoral programme, from a closely related subject/subject area as well as in terms of an interdisciplinary education or reflection from women's and gender studies, philosophy, the philosophy of science or other relevant areas, too. The Dean of Studies decides on their admissibility.
