

CV of Peter Macheroux, Born in Germany

Education

- 1988 - 1991 Feodor-Lynen Fellow at the Dept. of Biological Chemistry, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, U.S.A. (Prof. Vincent Massey).
- 1987 - 1988 Postdoctoral Fellow at the Institute of Biophysical Chemistry, Universität Frankfurt (Prof. Heinz Rüterjans)
- 1982 - 1986 Dissertation at the Universität Konstanz, supervised by Prof. S. Ghisla
- 1977 - 1982 Undergraduate education, diploma in chemistry, University of Konstanz

Professional experiences

- 2003 - Full Professor of Biochemistry at the Graz University of Technology
- 1997-2003 Assistant professor (Oberassistent) at the Institute of Plant Sciences (ETH-Zürich, group of Prof. Nikolaus Amrhein) Professor of Biochemistry at the International University Bremen
- 1994 - 1996 Senior research scientist at the John Innes Centre in Brighton/Norwich (Prof. Roger Thorneley)
- 1994 Habilitation, University Konstanz, Germany: venia legendi in biochemistry
- 1991 - 1994 Group leader at the faculty of Biology, University Konstanz, Germany

Awards

- 2012 Excellence in Teaching Prize awarded by the TUG alumni organization
- 2009 Styrian Research Prize awarded by the Styrian government
- 1994 Human Capital and Mobility Fellowship awarded by the European Union
- 1991 Habilitation Stipend awarded by the German Research Council (DFG)
- 1986 Feodor-Lynen Stipend awarded by the Alexander-von-Humboldt Foundation
- 1986 Promotion summa cum laude